ABSTRACT

Livestock - Premium for breeding bulls - Payment - Sanction of Delegation of powers to the District Veterinary officers - Ordered.

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.2136 Dated 27th July 1950.
Read the following:-

From the Director of Animal Husbandry, Roc.No.696.IV/50 dated 13-2-50

ORDER:

The power to sanction payment of premium for breeding bulls is at present exercised by the Joint Director of Animal Husbandry. At the departmental Conference held in December 1949, it was suggested that in order to avoid delay in the payment of premia for the maintenance of Breeding Bulls, the District Veterinary Officers might be authorised to sanction such payments. The Director of Animal Husbandry has recommended the suggestion. The Government accept the recommendation of the Director of Animal Husbandry and direct that the District Veterinary Officers be authorised to sanction payment of premia for the maintenance of breeding bulls including the grant of prize money to the owners of the best calves sired by the breeding bulls subject to the condition that they communicate copies of the sanction orders to the Director of Animal Husbandry., and to the Accountant-General.
